TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Monday of this week is Christmas Day in Russia and in much of the Orthodox world. This curious difference in schedule has a lot to do with how calendars have been developed and changed over the years. In the year 45 B.C. Julius Ceasar gave the empire his Julian Calendar, with the winter solstice on January 6. This put an end to a system in which officials called "pontiffs" were able to tweak the calendar by adding extra days in as needed. He invented two new months at that time, December and January; and in order to correct the mess the pontiffs had made, forced a year of 445 days on the empire in what he named "The Last Year of Confusion." The new months varied in number of days according to a complex schedule, but the calendar was still off by nearly twelve minutes a year, and lost a full day every 130 years.

Pope Gregory XIII reformed the calendar in 1583, but not everyone appreciated his efforts. England held out for two hundred years. The year 1700 was a leap year in England, but not in France; they were eleven days apart! George Washington was really born on February 11; when the Gregorian calendar was finally adopted in the English colonies shortly before the Revolution, he had to move his birthday to February 22. Now the calendars are thirteen days apart, which accounts for Russia's Julian calendar Christmas. And Caesar thought he had brought confusion to an end!

FINDING GOD

The splendid magi, all sparkle and dash and solemnity, march right up off the pages of Matthew's Gospel and into our churches today. Matthew alone tells us this grand and seductive story so that we might see the light and know that the child these magi visited is the fulfillment of prophecy, the king of the world that stretches to the magi's home country and beyond, right down the ages to us.

We too see and understand anew. Like the magi, our patron saints for this day, we see in the newborn child the king of the universe and light of the world. Like the magi, we find in ourselves a new faith and a new life. Like them, we return to our home by a new route.

We are asked to come away from this festive season ourselves renewed and awake to the presence of God among us. We are asked to find God where God is to be found, to be attentive and surprised and ready to bow down in adoration and to offer our gifts.

Kto znajdzie Życie?

Pojawienie się Boga na ziemi budzi od początku przerażenie (jak u Heroda) i radość (jak u Mędrców). Wszystko zależy od nastawienia do świata, od systemu wartości. Kto chce dominować, będzie "alergicznie" reagować na obecność Boga. Kto natomiast szuka prawdy i dobra, ten ucieszy się każdym przejawem Bożej obecności.

Nam też Pan Jezus chce się objawić (jak Mędrcom). W tym celu "wysłał" do nas różne znaki swojej obecności. Jeśli je odczytamy, jak Mędrcy odczytali znaczenie gwiazdy, wówczas znajdziemy Go. Jeśli będziemy się Go bać, bo nie chcemy nic zmienić w swoim systemie wartości, wówczas Go nie znajdziemy, jak nie znalazł Herod.

"Kto straci swoje życie z Mego powodu, znajdzie je. A kto chce zachować swoje życie na tym świecie, ten je straci" - powiedział kiedyś Jezus.

Mieczysław Łusiak SJ

"Christus mansionem benedicat"

Mędrcy, o których wspomina dzisiejsza Ewangelia, wybrali się w długą drogę na spotkanie z Chrystusem. Przybyli, aby oddać Mu pokłon i obdarzyć tym, co mieli najcenniejsze. Zdecydowali się na oderwanie się od swojej codzienności oraz ryzyko podróży, która zawsze wiązała się z różnego rodzaju niedogodnościami i niebezpieczeństwami, aby spotkać Nowonarodzonego. Choć tradycyjnie zwiemy ich Kacprem, Melchiorem i Baltazarem, to nic nie wskazuje na to, że takie nosili imiona. W nich Chrystus objawia się całemu światu, który przyszedł zbawić. Abyśmy mogli odkryć objawiającego się nam Boga, musimy przyjąć zaproszenie wyjścia Mu na spotkanie. Gdy dziś znaczyć będziemy nasze domy literami C+M+B, pamiętajmy, że są one inicjałami łacińskiej frazy Christus mansionem benedicat, 'niech Chrystus błogosławi temu domowi', która jest nie tylko prośbą o błogosławieństwo, ale także zaproszeniem Chrystusa pod nasz dach i zachętą do wyruszenia z Nim w drogę.

Chryste, Ty pragniesz zostać poznany przez wszystkich ludzi. Spraw, prosimy, aby nasze życie, przeniknięte Twoim światłem, wskazywało innym drogę do Ciebie.
